

THE HICKMAN COURIER

SATURDAY, JULY 18, 1868

GEORGE WARREN, Editor.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT.

HORATIO SEYMOUR

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

GEN. FRANK BLAIR

OF MISSOURI.

FOR GOVERNOR.

JNO. W. STEVENSON.

Seymour's Chances.

We are occasionally asked by good Democrats, "If there is any well found chance of electing the Democratic ticket, we say that there is, and submit the following States as certain to vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

the following States as certain to

vote the Democratic ticket, and ask all

the friends of the ticket to make

Our August Election.

Now that the National Democratic Convention has put forth its nominees, the people of Kentucky should turn their eyes upon the ticket, and work for it. State election is only three weeks distant, and the result of that election will have a great effect upon the election of November. We must not content ourselves with the belief that we are certain to carry the State, and therefore need not exert ourselves until the Presidential election. True, there is no doubt that we will carry Kentucky, but we owe a duty to the country and to the struggling democracy in the Northern States to carry it by an increased majority. Let our August elections occur, exhibiting a falling off in our strength, and an increased vote for Radicalism, and Radicalism will be encouraged to the struggle for the Northern States. We must not then allow the Radicals to get up, but squarely and earnestly to work, viewing the result as a matter of life and death to our country, which it is. We must manage to bring out every voter in each county, and in order to do so our neighbor reads and is properly informed, invite public speakers to every precinct, and have every voter thoroughly aroused as to the importance of discharging his duty. We can carry Kentucky by a larger majority than we ever before, because a great many who have hitherto voted with the Radicals have become disgusted with their despair and ultra measures, and the great body of the late Third party will now vote with us. The question is to which we will have a constitutional government or a consolidated despotism is now before the people, and if we would win, every man must go to work.

Gov. Stevenson, our standard bearer is a good man, and every vote worthy of a free citizen should be cast for him.

He has been and efficiently discharged the duties of his high office, accepting the nomination when he had a seat in the U. S. Senate at his command. We owe it to his great worth to give him an increased majority. We hope now every public speaker in the State, will go actively to work, and that every democratic citizen will be prompt and ready to perform his duty. For Fulton let it be said this time that every vote was polled for the Democratic ticket.

How the Nominations are Received.

In all parts of the North the nominations of Seymour and Blair are being received with unbounded enthusiasm. In all the large cities and towns ratification meetings are being held, canons are being proclaimed, and great rejoicing prevails among the people. The immense enthusiasm which the ticket excites surely points to the great victory which it will achieve in November. All the conflicting and radical elements are united upon, and all the rival candidates for the high honor of the nomination are entering zealously for its support.

THE NOMINATION AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

The nomination of Seymour though taking everybody in Washington by surprise, is generally approved. Secretary Wellen was the first to communicate to the President. He found Mr. Johnson in his office, and said:

"Well, Mr. President, the convention has made a nomination."

"Who is it?"

"Green," said the Secretary.

"O, damn it," says Johnson; "I know it ain't him, who is it?"

Biography of the Democratic

Nominees.

HORATIO SEYMOUR.

HORATIO SEYMOUR was born in Pompey, Onondaga county, New York, in the year 1815. His family originally from Connecticut, moved back into the Colonial days. His father, Major Moses Seymour, served in the war of the Revolution, and afterward for a number of years in the Legislature of Connecticut.

He was representative of the town of Litchfield. His father was for some years a member of the New York Legislature, and other members of the family have occupied distinguished positions in the service of the nation.

His early career.

Mr. Seymour commenced at an early age the practice of the law in the city of Utica; but after duties soon compelled him to abandon his profession. At the age of thirty he was chosen Mayor of Utica. He had before him a very difficult task, but he discharged it with credit. He was elected to the Legislature in 1840, and was re-elected in 1842, and in 1844. He was elected to the Legislature of the State of New York in 1846, and was re-elected in 1848, and

in 1850. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1852, and was re-elected in 1854, and

in 1856. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1858, and was re-elected in 1860, and

in 1862. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1864, and was re-elected in 1866, and

in 1868. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1870, and was re-elected in 1872, and

in 1874. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1876, and was re-elected in 1878, and

in 1880. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1882, and was re-elected in 1884, and

in 1886. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1888, and was re-elected in 1890, and

in 1892. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1894, and was re-elected in 1896, and

in 1898. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1900, and was re-elected in 1902, and

in 1904. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1906, and was re-elected in 1908, and

in 1910. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1912, and was re-elected in 1914, and

in 1916. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1918, and was re-elected in 1920, and

in 1922. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1924, and was re-elected in 1926, and

in 1928. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1930, and was re-elected in 1932, and

in 1934. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1936, and was re-elected in 1938, and

in 1940. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1942, and was re-elected in 1944, and

in 1946. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1948, and was re-elected in 1950, and

in 1952. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1954, and was re-elected in 1956, and

in 1958. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

1960, and was re-elected in 1962, and

in 1964. He was elected to the Legis-

lature of the State of New York in

THE INDIAN HERB DOCTOR, is now at the

OVERTON HOUSE,

HICKMAN, KY.

WHERE he may be consulted by all persons afflicted with